MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT LINCOLN.

Wasson, Thursday, March 7, 1862.

The President has the honor to submit to the House the following Notes:

I recommend the adoption of a joint resolution by both Houses of Congress, that treason shall be substantially as follows:

"That the United States ought to entreat with any State which may adopt a gradual abolition of slavery, to be bound by such act in its discretion, to compensate the States in which slavery now exists with an equal amount of the value of the slaves by some such compensation as shall be determined by the Congress of the United States, on the recommendation of the President."...
